ANNEXURE.

Amendments made by the Secretary of State in the Study Leave Rules prescribed under Fundamental Rule 84.

For Rule 2-A of the Study Leave Rules the following shall be substituted :-

"2-A. In the case of an officer who has been admitted to the benefits of the rules for the assistance of officers on leave in the United Kingdom who wish to prosecute their legal studies at one of the Inns of Court, London, or the King's Inns, Dublin, study leave for a period of six-months may be granted for the purpose of studying for the examinations prescribed for a call to the Bar on a programme approved by the High Commissioner, and of reading in the chambers of a practising barrister. Such reading, however, will be optional during this period. Study leave for a further period not exceeding twelve months may be granted, after Part I of the Bar examinations has been passed, for the purpose of reading in the chambers of a practising barrister, and for completing the Bar examinations. The officer will be entitled to draw study allowance under rule 10 for periods not exceeding eighteen months in the aggregate, but these periods need not coincide with the periods for which he has been granted study leave".

In Rule 12 of the Study Leave Rules, after the words "two years" the following shall be inserted :-

"(18 months in the case of Officers falling under Rule 2-A)".
